said they were for him—they always were, but they didn't know he would run. They only had one favor to ask and that was to give them control of the heart of alidermen. In other words, they wanted to put out twelve men of their owe stripe, who would be elected and block every naive that was made in the interest of good gavernment, just the same as had been done in the pust. Colonel Hall refused to bent his assistance and then these willy politicians, who leved alin so well our so many minutes, turned from him and sought another candidate to oppose him. You know who he is, John Stewart is a nice fellow, but what that gaug would do it new got him in power would be too bad to tell. The only reason they got John was to save their aldes, but I do not for a moment imagine they are going to save them, and I don't believe you think so either. All you have to do is the up on April I and east your vote the right way, and the right way is O. T. Holt. Don't forger it. Let it be such a majority that the very life will be crushed out of these ring politicians; make it so overwhelming that they will retire to the privacy of their heaves and there in adjacant people."

Mr. Mirchner was frequently applanded and numerous times was interrupted by an adherent of the ring. The disturber all ways reserved what was coming to him and toward the close the speaker made it so warm that he was allowed to proceed without interruption.

Judge Ralley was next introduced. He made a strong pies for the election of Celoted Holt. He declared he had known him for twenty years, starting out at a plow boy and working his way, step by step until he had reached his present position. "Coming from the people, O. T. Helt has always been one of the people, O. T. Helt has always been one of the people, declared Judge Railey, "He is a man easy of approach at all times and he is a fair man, and one to whom I point with pride as migriend. You will make no mistaks by electing him mayor." Before he closed Judge Railey teck accasion to say that he was a tandidate for recepter and promised to conduct the office to the best of his shifty. The ROAD to GOOD HEALT Lies through e BOWE

When you cut your finger, it is sure to bleed and you expect it. When your system is clogged up, the poisonous matters cannot be thrown off, you should expect to be sick.

There's no other way out of it. Eighty-five per cent of sickness is caused by constipation or retaining poisons in the body. Enormous-and then to think how much suffering could be avoided if taken in time and the system kept open.

Physicians appreciate the importance of it by asking about the bowels the first thing when you are sick. Ever notice? Well, it is so.

Don't hesitate a moment if you are troubled with constipation but get and take it according to directions. It's the 50 year old remedy for constipation, that is so reliable and standard. Your Dyspepsia, Headache, Nervousness, Liver Trouble, Backache and Dizziness are probably due to constipation and Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup will cure you. Get it today.

HERE IS GOOD EVIDENCE OF ITS WORTH.

My nephew has been suffering with asthma for seven years. The doctors all told him he could not get well. I prevailed upon him to try Dr. Thacher's Liver Medicine, which he did and he now feels to try Dr. Thacher's Liver manufacture, which the better than he has in twelve years.

He is 25 years of age and I think it will make a permanent cure of asthma. He will not allow it to be out of the house and pronounces it the best Liver Medicine on the market.

W. D. HALL.

New Gastle Alabama, April 5, 1901.

We have tried your Liver Medicine and find it all right. Your medicines have a high reputation. People say if they had the word "Thacher's" on it, it is all right and reliable. I think so, too, at any rate all I have tried is all "O. K." Yours.

Dove, Tarrant Go., Texas, November 14th, 1901.

Dr. Thacher's raining medicines I have ever used in my family.

W. H. CLEVELAND Culiman, Alabama,

Dr. Thacher's Family Medicines are the greatest and best

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup is good for what it is recommended, it will do just what is claimed for it. I have tried it and know that it will do the work. Yours truly.

B. J. JACKSON Jestor, Georgia,

I have used Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup and take great cleasure in recommending it as a splendid medicine for indigestion. Respectfully, and a Cascaret three times on the day of misery will make you well. But, for goodness sake, he wise, up to the century, and the next time you go out with the hoys, eat too much, drink too much, irritate your stomach, block your howels, don't forget that you can prevent the "morning's mourning" by taking a Cascaret Candy Cathartic before you go to bed. They work while you sleep and make you awake bright as a new dollar in the morning. Always carry a box in your pocket, and have another on your dresser and another on your night table. Also one "In your grip-on a trip."

R. H. WASHBURN Nashville, Tennessee, December 6th, 1901
